

ATHENS CHURCH OF CHRIST
P. O. BOX 494
ATHENS, TENNESSEE 37371

The Church of Christ in Athens, Tennessee is seeking a full-time pulpit minister. We are looking for a minister who can inspire the congregation to draw closer to God through Bible-based sermons and lessons and to challenge us to love God and love others.

We prefer a minister with a four-year Bible degree from a recognized Church of Christ University or preaching school. We desire to find a mature man who rightly handles the word of truth and who has a passion to save the lost and encourage the saved. We are seeking a minister with at least seven years of experience in pulpit preaching and has functioned harmoniously with the elders and the congregation. We prefer a married man.

The Athens congregation has a regular Sunday A.M. attendance of 200 and has three shepherds and ten deacons. We currently support two ministry positions, pulpit and involvement. We are involved in 41 ministries, including benevolence, missions, celebrate recovery, jail, greet and reach-out, youth, and senior saints.

Interested candidates should send a resume along with three recent video lessons. The E-Mail address is donnawhitted@ymail.com. The mailing address is
